

Mike Jennings, has a long-standing background in representing the interests of staff in the higher education sector and working for social change.

He was General Secretary of IFUT, the union for University Academics, Researchers, Librarians, and Senior Professional Staff. He is Chair of TASC, the think-tank for Action on Social Change and was Treasurer/Vice-President of Education International.

He is a graduate of University of Galway and a past President of the University's Students' Union. He was editor of two weekly student newspapers; "Unity" and "Student Forum".